

Name & Surname: Abdolkarim Razazan

Birth year: 1954

Educational degree: BSc. In Electrical Engineering and M.A. in management

Executorial records:

1-1984, in position of electrical engineer and in charge of projects at Razi Chemical Complex at Ministry of Petroleum.

2-1987, in position of training expert at electricity department of Port and Shipping Organization.

3-1991, Director General for Technical Support in the Technical and Engineering Department of ports & Maritime Organization.

4-2000, Director General for Equipment Supply & Maintenance in Technical and Engineering Department of the ports & Maritime Organization up to 2018.

5- Member of strategic working group of port accidents & incidents, Head of Technical and Commercial working group of the Managed Funds Committee, specialized expert for Port, Marine and Electronic equipment, member of the strategic committee of organization and development of oil parts, permanent member of scientific Committee of the International Conference on Coats Parts and Marine Structures (ICOPMAS), member of the license-issuing working group for marine and installations, member of thing-tank committee member of DNS committee member of the auditing committee of the country's ports.

6-Member of the working group for codification of Marine Industries bill approved in 2008 by the Islamic consultative assembly.

Specialty Records

1- Full command on general and specialized English language for electricity & mechanic.

2-Technical familiarity with the latest technology worldwide in different fields of port, marine, communication, security, electronic.

3- Full expertise and experience in technical and commercial assessment for purchase of any part marine and electronic equipment.

4-Full expertise and experience in regard to commercial issues (LC, releasing of goods, customs and banking issues).

5- Full expertise on concluding commercial and technical contracts with local and foreigner companies 6- Full expertise on financing via local and foreigner resources.

7- Full familiarity with port engineering issues

Participation in seminars & delivery of papers:

1- Participation in more than 100 scientific and management seminars in Iran and abroad.

2- Delivery of scientific papers in Marine Industries Conference, ICOPMAS conferences, etc.

3- Contribution in manufacturing Underwater Robotic vessel to be used in research projects related to Ports and Maritime Organization.

4-Delivery of several papers and publishing them in the international references.